G. H. BURBIDGE FILES ANSWER

IS EMPLOYE OF RIO GRANDE

DEMURRER ASKS THAT WOOD BE MADE A DEFENDANT.

The answer and demurrer of George E. Burbidge to the election contest begun against him some days ago by George D. Dean, were yesterday filed with the clerk of the district court. In the demurrer Burbidge asks that Lorin J. Wood be made a party defendant, that he may be called upon to defend his rights should the recount of the votes in certain districts in the Second precinct show that he did not receive precinct show that he did not receive as large a plurality as did Burbidge and Dean. district he is credited with 171 votes, when he should have received 180. In the Fourteenth he denies that he only received 306, as alleged by Dean, that he did receive 315, but is only credited with 207. In the Fifteenth Rurbidge says he should have been credited with eighty-six instead of eighty-two.

In the Sixteenth district Eurbidge says the tally sheet should have shown 155 votes for him, whereas he is credited with only 147. He denies that Dean received 239 votes, alleging his vote was but 230. In the Seventeenth Burbidge only received fifty-five votes, lystead of fifty-eight, as credited to pstead of fifty-eight, as credited to

In the Nineteenth district Burbidge claims 115 instead of 107 votes, and de-nies that Dean received 143, placing the number at 137. In the Twentieth dis-trict Burbidge claims 140 votes, instead 113, and declares Dean did not get of 119, and declares Dean did not get 180, only receiving 140.

In the Twenty-first district Burbidge denies Dean received 137 votes, saying the number should be 130. In his own behalf he says he should have been credited with 105 instead of ninety-seven votes. In the Twenty-second Burbidge asks for 130 instead of 123 votes, and says Dean is only entitled to 200, instead of 209.

Many Mistakes Are Alleged.

A mistake of seven votes is alleged in the Twenty-third district, Burbidge claiming 110 instead of 102, and says Dean should have only 157 instead of 164 votes, in the Twenty-fourth district Burbidge claims eighty-six instead of seventy-five votes, and holds that Dean should have credited to him only 102 votes and roll 109.

only 102 votes, and not 169.

In the Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth districts Burbidge holds that votes to which he was entitled were not counted for him, and that votes Dean should not be credited with were counted for him.

In his demurrer Burbidge says the district court "has no jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action, for it
